DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7/16/03 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 45 thru 64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yamazaki '132 in view of Matsumoto '084. Yamazaki discloses (see, for example, FIG. 3) a thin film transistor (semiconductor device) comprising a substrate 1, non-single-crystal semiconductor layer (crystalline semiconductor island) 2, gate insulating film 3, and gate electrode 5G. The gate insulating film comprises a first insulating film with a side aligned with a side of the single-crystal semiconductor layer 2. Yamazaki does not disclose a gate insulating film comprising a second insulating film extending beyond an edge of the first insulating film. However, Matsumoto discloses (see, for example, FIG. 1) a thin film semiconductor device comprising a thin film transistor 2 wherein the thin film transistor comprises a gate insulating film (second gate insulating film) 19 that extends all the way across a semiconductor device. In column 4, lines 47-49 and lines 65-68, Matsumoto discloses the gate insulating films may be silicon oxide or silicon nitride. In column 5, lines 28-56, Matsumoto teaches that such an arrangement will increase the on-voltage and suppress the increase in current consumption. Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to include the gate insulating film 19 of Matsumoto to extend all the way across the thin film transistor in Yamazaki's invention in order to increase the on-voltage and suppress the increase in current consumption.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 45-64 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
